„Der Weg ist das Ziel“

(Motto von Alan Bangs)

Über 1100 Sendungen in dieser Gesamtliste !

Zur Entstehungsgeschichte...

In der Anfangszeit von Alan Bangs' Radiosendungen wurden diese von den Hörern mit Kassettenrekordern oder Tonbandgeräten vom Lautsprecher des Radios aufgenommen, zusammengeschnitten und im Bekanntenkreis verteilt. Playlisten gab es noch nicht, also mussten die Musiktitel einzeln herausgehört werden, was nicht immer gelang. Mit der technischen Entwicklung von Sendetechnik und Internet wurde die Dokumentation immer leichter und der Austausch unter Alan-Bangs-Fans intensiviert sich (2003: Einrichtung der Internetseite nightflights.de). Zusammen mit immer mehr „friends-ofalan“ entstand das Projekt der hier vorliegenden Sammlung. Basis dafür ist und bleibt die von Hagen Schwarz entworfene Liste, die erstmals 2009 im Netz unter der Webadresse: nightflights.de/radio.html erschien und aktuell von ihm weiter geführt wird mit Hilfe vieler Unterstützer aus dem Friendsofalan-Kreis. Die Beteiligten erheben keinen Anspruch auf Vollständigkeit und Korrektheit ihrer Angaben. Dies ist ein freiwilliges und unbezahltes Projekt. Wer etwas beitragen möchte, noch alte Bänder oder neue Informationen hat, ist herzlich willkommen.

Hinweis: Die Playlisten sind von vielen Friendsofalan überwiegend durch Abhören der Mitschnitte der Sendungen zusammengestellt, bearbeitet und immer wieder korrigiert und ergänzt worden. Dabei wurden auch Daten weiterverarbeitet, die auf der inzwischen geschlossenen Website colgneshark.com von RB in nur eingeschränkter Form zugänglich waren.

Herzlichen Dank an alle, die seit vielen Jahren und aktuell zu dieser öffentlichen Überlieferung von Alan Bangs' Radiosendungen beitragen! Weitere Beiträge sind willkommen. Helmut Mehnert

⁴ Wäre in der behaupteten Tape-Chronologie; Aber Tape 19 reißt aus: xx.02. 1988. In diesem Zwischenraum: 11.3. - 15.4. also Tape 20 verorten

⁵ Ein seltsamer Ausreißer! // könnte allerdings auch der 2. Teil zu Tape 32 A sein

⁶ Tape 38 habe ich auf den Buß- und Bettag 1987 im November gelegt! Gegen die Tape-Chronologie entschieden. Bußtag 1988 war am 16.11. und ist mit Tape 72 belegt.

A. Die großen Abschnitte mit Infos zu den einzelnen Sendungen

Erläuterungen der Möglichkeiten zur Navigation in dieser Liste (vorwiegend in der PDF-Version)

Zur Verbesserung der Übersichtlichkeit ist die chronologische Abfolge aller Alan-Bangs - Sendungen durch Zwischenüberschriften gegliedert worden, so dass es – zumindest in der pdf-Version dieser Gesamtliste - möglich ist, zu dem jeweils gewünschten Unterkapitel zu springen, um nicht manuell blättern bzw. scrollen zu müssen.

Rücksprünge zum Inhalt sind noch nicht eingebaut. Wer die pdf-Datei aber in seinem Browser aufrufen kann, hat dort die Möglichkeit mit der Browser-Navigation (Vor- und Zurück-Button) hin und her zu springen.

Weitere Kapitelunterteilung:

1. 1975-1989: Night Flight auf BFBS und ein bisschen mehr...	29
2. 90er Jahre: Alan Bangs Connection (ABC), Nachtflug, Rolling Stone Radio Show	561
3. An der Wende zum neuen Jahrtausend: Nachtsession auf Bayern 2	891
Das AB-Nachtsession-Playlist-Archiv	891
4. 2010-2013: nightflight auf DRadioWissen und Nachtsession (bis 1.12.2012)	927

1. 1975-1989: Night Flight auf BFBS und ein bisschen mehr...

Die erste Serie der Night Flight/ nightflight-Sendungen bei der BFBS (British Forces Broadcasting Service in Germany) begann im Mai 1975 und dauerte mit insgesamt 700 Sendungen (nach Alan Bangs' eigener Zählung!) bis zum 9. April 1989.

100 Aufnahmen erhalten am 3.2.2017 (erstellt zw 11.2. und 11.3.2002)

"Der Hammer ist .. eine Sendung von 1974, bei der noch eine kurze Alan Bangs Anmoderation drauf ist. Es soll sich um eine Sendung unter dem Label "The Great North-Rhine Westphalia" handeln, dass John Peel und Alan Bangs bespielt haben sollen... Irgendeine Andeutung meine ich dazu schon mal irgendwo gelesen zu haben, finde sie aber im Moment nicht wieder..." (HM)

"Warm summer morning with nothing to do
Over my shoulder there's a beautiful blue
Guess I'll walk the four miles to Ebury Down
Go to see my lady when there's noone around" Ebury Down (Nick Lowe)

„Damals, 1970, war das eine komische, aber seltsam schöne Schratmusik. (Kennt den noch jemand: "Schrat"?) Und die Jungs sahen auch noch genauso aus, schratig, als sie irgendwie vor, nach oder neben Black Sabbath's "Paranoid" im Beatclub ihr "Country Girl" spielten. Und sie hießen, wie sie aussahen: "Brinsley Schwarz"! Übrigens der Name ihres ersten Gitarristen. Ziemlich aus der Zeit gefallen erschienen sie mit ihrem Country und Folk und Countryfolk so in der Ära nach (psychedelischen) und vor (poppigen) Pink Floyd. Die spielten wirklich etwas, das definitiv verpönt war, nämlich das was Dolly Parton und Johnny Cash repräsentierten - nur viel schlimmer! Heute würde man sagen rootsiger.

Und genau damit retteten sie sich auch fast in die Gegenwart, wären sie nur mal konsequent rootsig und countryesque gewesen. Doch das hätte zwischen Black Sabbath und Pink Floyd dann doch zuviel Mut bedeutet. Also weichte Nick Lowe, der Kopf des Ganzen, das alles ein wenig auf und ließ es im meist verwendeten Satzgesang einfach wie Crosby Stills & Nash ohne Young klingen. Mit heutiger Brille betrachtet ist das wirklich bedauerlich. Hätten sie darauf verzichtet, hätten sie der Band die Konkurrenz angesagt. Entsprechend gingen ihre ersten Ausflüge in Richtung Amerika auch brutal daneben. Welcher Ami brauchte damals schon gefakten Country aus England?!

Dennoch hatte es auch damals das gewisse Etwas. Zwei, drei Gruppen gab's die trauten sich das. Ich denke da nur an die dritte Humble Pie mit ihrer Country-Soul-Blues- und Hardrock Mixtur, die sich eben auch mit akustischen Instrumenten auf die Bühne traute. Oder auch Heads Hands & Feet, mit ihrem Frank Sinatra-Jazz-Country. Aber...die Zeit war noch lange nicht reif hierfür. The Pie und die Brinsleys mussten schon bei ihrer nächsten Aufnahme ihren Stil umstellen, HH&F entzogen sich diesem Wandlungsprozeß. Wozu das im Einzelnen führte, ist hinlänglich bekannt....bei Humble Pie. HH&F verendeten kläglich und feierten ihre Wiederauferstehung als erstrangige Studiomusiker und zweitklassige Songwriter in den Studios von Nashville und Austin!

Bei den Brinsleys führte dies zu einem sehr überzeugenden Club Rock mit starkem R'n'B Einschlag, dann zu "(What's so funny about) peace, love and understanding" und Parkerilla. Alles auch heute noch kleine Meisterwerke, hörensenswert....und damit nahezu zeitlos.“ (http://www.amazon.de/Brinsley-Schwarz/dp/B00GB8TUWY/ref=sr_1_2?ie=UTF8&qid=1413035164&sr=8-2&keywords=Brinsley+Schwarz) muss Anfang 1977 sein, wahrscheinlich 30.01.1977 In der Sendung (HS: vom 23.1.) wird das Racing Cars Konzert erwähnt, zu dem Alan einen kritischen Kommentar über die Reaktion des Publikums abgegeben hatte (das müsste in der Sendung vom 09.01.1977 gewesen sein). Am Tag vor dieser Sendung hier war er in einem Konzert von Kevin Ayers Band (HS: ft Andi Summers!!) in Aachen (das kann ich leider bisher nirgends finden). In der Sendung vor dieser hat er 2 Songs von William Ackerman gespielt, das passt auch.

30.01. 1977 Night Flight 083 "St Augustine"

Aufnahme mit Kassettenrecorder, unbekanntes Band, mässige Qualität, Mono (flight16 und flight17.mp3)

Hinweise für andere Sendungen: 3 Wochen vorher: Cal Hand (mehrere Stücke, mit Leo Kottke) In der Woche davor: Start mit Richard & Linda Thompson, von „Pour Down Like Silver“

⁵³ „Elegant Gypsy ist Al Di Meolas zweites Studioalbum und mit über 2 Millionen verkaufter Exemplare sein kommerziell erfolgreichstes. Zum Zeitpunkt der Veröffentlichung war Di Meola gerade 23 Jahre alt und gehörte als Mitglied Chick Coreas Fusion-Band Return to Forever an, wo er sich bereits einen Ruf als talentierter Musiker erworben hatte. Im Unterschied zu seinem 1976 veröffentlichten Debüt Land of the Midnight Sun ist auf diesem Album eine Abkehr weg vom reinen Geschwindigkeitsspiel hin zu mehr melodiosen Arrangements festzustellen; es gilt daher auch als sein schönstes Album. Des Weiteren sind Einflüsse des Latin Jazz, des Flamenco und des Rock festzustellen: Die Stücke sind sehr kontrastreich, von an brasilianischer Musik und am Flamenco inspirierten Akustikstücken für Di Meola alleine (Lady of Rome, Sister of Brazil) oder im Duo mit dem Gitarristen Paco de Lucía (Mediterranean Sundance) bis hin zu technisch extrem anspruchsvollem Jazzrock (Race with Devil on Spanish Highway) und rockigen Höhenflügen (Flight Over Rio mit einem „teuflischen Klangduell“ mit Jan Hammers Moog-Synthesizer). Das Guitar Player Magazine kürte Elegant Gypsy zum besten Gitarrenalbum des Jahres. Für Scott Yanow ist das Album „beinahe ein Klassiker der Fusionrichtung“; er gab ihm fünf Sterne.“ (wikipedia; 8.1.2015)

Abspann

⁸⁸ AB erzählt von einer Single B-side vö in 1966 die A-Side will er später spielen. Auf der Single steht der Titel „Can't get away..“ - nur das Lied, das AB spielt, ist als „Milk and Honey“ zu identifizieren! Was geht da ab? Wikipedia beschreibt, dass die LP (!) rereleased ist: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jackson_C._Frank AB spielt also die LP, erinnert sich aber an die Single, vgl die lyrics im Netz

⁸⁹ <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p0E6WrmDgvl>

⁹⁰ I played a track last week from that LP ... diese LP ist nicht zu finden, aber dafür die, die letzte Woche als gespielte angegeben ist

Ataraxie (aus: Wikipedia)

Die Ataraxie („Unerschütterlichkeit“, auch Ataraxis, altgriechisch ataraxía, von a-tárachos „unerschütterlich“) ist die Bezeichnung der Epikureer und Pyrrhoneer für das Ideal der Seelenruhe.

Sie bezeichnet als seelischen Zustand die Affektlosigkeit und die emotionale Gelassenheit gegenüber Schicksalsschlägen und ähnlichen Außeneinwirkungen, die das Glück des Weisen (Eudaimonie) gefährden.

¹⁴⁵ 200. Sendung

xx.06. 1979 Night Flight "Ataraxia"

1) "11_7916xx" (sic!) (1:54'52)

2) " night flight 1979 ataraxia" Datum unbekannt (Sendung ist vollständig bis auf ein kleines Stück vom letzten Lied) Aufnahme mit Revox A-77, Band TDK Audua (27/02-8)"

HS: "Rust never sleeps" vö am 2.7.79.. wenn also Juli wäre 08. oder 15.07. 1979 möglich

in einer folgenden weiteren (nicht vorhanden) Sendung kommen drei Stücke von Linda Cohen vor -> „ask me no questions“

8.7. nicht, weil da die Lowell George "Back on the Road" Sendung sein muss!

Wenn also "Ataraxia" am 15.7 war und Linda Cohen am 23.7. gewesen sein kann, muss "ask me no questions" am 30.7. gewesen sein

In den nächsten Wochen will AB mehr spielen von Neil Young und Milton Nascimento!

xx.06. 1979 (??) Night Flight "Ask Me No Questions"

„Das genaue Datum ist nicht bekannt Aufnahme mit Revox A-77, Band TDK Audua (27/02-8)

Diese Sendung ist vollständig..“

HS: wenn Juli: 23/30.07. 1979 möglich

diese Sendung auf jeden Fall zeitlich nach der Ataraxia Sendung, da dort AB verspricht, demnächst mehr von Neil Young „Rust never sleeps“ zu spielen!

Hier und heute sagt AB: „letzte Woche drei Stücke von Linda Cohen gespielt...“

Kein direkter Bezug auf die Ataraxia Sendung: Vermutung: Zwischen den beiden liegt eine Linda Cohen Sendung, deswegen hier 30.7. 1979?

¹⁵⁶ „He died a week ago on Friday“ (29.6.79) -> Sendedatum 1.7. ist zu früh für „a week ago“! Eher eine Woche später und der Beitrag ergibt Sinn

"Alan spielt die komplette LP 'Bop Till You Drop' von Ry Cooder (ist aber auch wirklich eine schöne Platte...)" (JG)

¹⁷⁶ Sleeve Notes zur digitalen Aufnahme, denn diese Platte ist die erste digital aufgenommene Platte auf einem Major Label

¹⁷⁷ "The record should coming that coming week" Sendung doch vom 30.7.??

¹⁷⁸ The second album "Rust never sleeps" shall be released very soon / Festivalankündigung 17.-19. August Porta

Westfalica. "Vom 17.-19. August 1979 fand das Umsonst & Draussen Festival statt. 100.000 Besucher und 35 Künstler sprengten alle Erwartungen ... Schlamm bestimmt das Geschehen, Ordnungskräfte kapitulieren, trotzdem funktioniert alles, Feuerwehr und Sanitäter staunen ... vom Platz aus sendet der Schwarzsender RADIO FREE PORTA WESTVLOTHICA ... Neben Schlammschlachten, alle möglichen Drogen, war eigentlich fast alles erlaubt und nur Polizei wurde die drei Tage nicht geduldet ... es entsteht sogar eine eigene Festivalzeitung, doch U&D wird den Veranstaltern zu groß und sie beschließen es das nächste Jahr auszusetzen ... bis zum nächsten U&D vergingen zwölf Jahre ... The Police.....: Roxanne (live)²⁹⁰

o²⁹¹ |

²⁸⁷ Vor ein paar Tagen kam Comeback Single von John Lennon raus. Am 24.Oktober 1980 wurde (Just Like) Starting Over in UK released. Wenig Begeisterung bei AB.

²⁸⁸ Konzertankündigung für den 15.11. : Nick Gravenites / John Cipollina Band spielen in Bonn, Rheinterrassen.

²⁸⁹ " J.A. live last year on Rockpalast" (6.Rockpalast Nacht 19.-20.4.1980) Also aus 1981 und überspielt damit den Beginn vom 10.11 1980 auf diesem Band

²⁹⁰ Wenn das auch eine Rockpalastaufnahme ist dann vom 18.-19.10.1980 also dürfte diese Aufnahme auch aus 1981 sein, aus derselben Sendung wie das Armatrading Stück? Jedenfalls eine Fortsetzung der Überschreibung

Prince Far I, eigentlich Michael James Williams, (* 1944 in Spanish Town auf Jamaika; † 15. September 1983 auf Jamaika) Auf seinen ersten Platten nannte er sich King Cry Cry. Prince Far I gründete 1978 sein eigenes Plattenlabel Cry Tuff. Er veröffentlichte einige Platten auf On-U Sound Records und war Adrian Sherwoods musikalischer Mentor. 1983 wurde bei einem Einbruch in sein Haus in Kingston auf ihn geschossen. Wenig später starb er an den Folgen im Krankenhaus. (wikipedia 17.2.15)

³¹⁷ ...(be)for that Roy Harper and a Live Version of "South Africa" //

³¹⁸ This is (äh) one of my favorite records at the moment it also happens to number one in America and rapidly rising in the English Charts to certain people listening and think I shouldn't play but I happen to like it a lot

³¹⁹ Great track really, co-written by Jackie de Shannon, sung by Kim Carnes. That's someting called Bette Davis Eyes, and like I say, currently No 1 in America, and it looks set to achieve a similar position in the English charts. I think I talked a couple of weeks ago about someone who wrote a letter to me, saying that he was very disappointed when The Visages' "Fade To Grey" got into the charts, because suddenly it took on a whole different meaning by being played so often and heard by so many people. Whe've had a bit of an argument about it. I tend not to think that way. I tend to think, if you like the record it doesn't matter how many people get to listen to it or not. It's not a question of keeping it to yourself. And records that get to number one you can like as much as records nobody else has ever heard of. It's nice sometimes to pretend you know more than everbody else, but I don't think it's always that necessary, anyway. I might even play that again, that's Kim Carnes and "Bette Davis Eyes".

³²⁰ ...Before that Sniff'n The Tears and "Night Life". And if you were listening to this program a couple of weeks ago you may remember me saying that the following program would be Part 2 of that program. As it turned out, of course, Bob Marley's death came in-between which meant that last week's program (HS ->17.5.81?) for obvious reasons was not part two of what gone the week before (HS ->10.5.81). But this week is likely to be Part 1a, if you like, in other words, there are varoius tracks that I played in that program that I'd like to play again, for no reason whatsoever other than that I like them too. I sound awful when I keep saying that I like these tracks and I'm not supposed to be self-indulgent to that degree, but some of them are tracks that otherwise wouldn't get played that often anyway. That being the case for instance with this next one which is an old rock'n'roll song from a guy called Sonny Russell, a song about large bombs, as big, in fact, as "50 megatons". [KK Anm.: Ca. 50 MT war die größte jemals gezündete Wasserstoffbombe (ca.1962), von der SU, atmosphärisch über der Insel Nowalja Semlja. Der Song ist also wahrscheinlich um diese Zeit entstanden.]

Mail by RH 11.5.16: Wegen der Datumszuweisung: AB kündigt am Ende der Sendung für nächste Woche eine Tonbandaufnahme an "devoted mostly to Guthrie Thomas"; Der erste Teil der Sendung (10-15 Min) scheint zu fehlen... ..das, was dann kommt, hört sich für mich an wie die Einspielung eines Teiles einer früheren Sendung mit einer Live-Aufnahme aus dem BFBS Studio vom Dezember 1981 „Spirit – Open Up Your Heart“ in Kombination mit einem Interview (Monolog) mit Spirit (Randy California und Ed Cassidy)... .. nach einem Fehlstart nach diesem Spirit-Stück geht es weiter mit "Penguin Cafe Orchestra – Yodel 2, Album: Penguin Cafe Orchestra, Jahr: 1981"... ..daran schließt sich bis fast zum Ende der Sendung ein Interview mit Simon Jeffes von Penguin Cafe Orchestra an..

"10.3.82"

Simon Jeffes :

Hagen 22.3.17: 10.3.82 ist aber ein Mittwoch und also wohl ein Tippfehler von JS ; da JS die GT Sendung auf den 18.4. (von mir korrigiert auf Sonntag) datiert, hat er Platz für einen 11.4. nur leider keine PL, Idgl. die Simon Jeffes Notiz.

JS hat GT am 18.4.; Datum widerspricht dem Dateinamen der entspr. Sendung, der den 10.4. (resp. 11.4.) als Datum verlangt. Wenn JS annähernd Recht hat (10.3.= eigtl. der 11.4.) und die PL von RH auf 11.4. mit Penguin Cafe datumsmäßig korrekt ist, folgt: Der Dateiname für den 18.4. ist falsch... ziemlich viel zu korrigieren - aber alles logisch und schlüssig!

³⁶² Music to be used, to be listened to...Creative work of other people (2:44) Somebody came up to me this evening at Joan Armatrading's concert. It was a girl who I suppose was 16 or 17. And she came up to speak to me because her brother was actually the one who wanted to speak to me but for some reason he wasn't able to sum up the courage to come up and speak to me, which is somewhat peculiar in some ways. Anyway, she spoke to me and said the reason that he wanted to speak to me was that he would like to be able to do the kind of job that I'm doing. It was the kind of job he dreamed of. And I suppose she was 16 or 17 and she pointed out her brother to me who probably wasn't much older. It made me think because inevitably there are times when I think I'd like to be doing something else as well. It's so difficult sometimes to be as honest as you want to be on the radio, for various reasons. It's not possible ever, I think, because you'd be sitting here for an infinity talking. But sometimes I think I'd like to be David Bowie, for instance. I got a letter actually, after the last TV show that I did, suggesting I was trying to look like David Bowie on the air. Not exactly true, I mean, it's inevitable that you have people that you think: "God, they lead an interesting life, I'd like to lead that kind of a life", and obviously there are lots of times when I think: "It's not really very creative what I'm doing here, I'm just playing the creative work of other people, putting it together in one way or another. They're the people who're really creative, the people that are making the music that I'm playing here." And, it's a phase you go through. There are times also when I think that. But when I switch on the radio myself and try and find something I wanna listen to, there's nothing. Nobody seems to be using the music the way it's perhaps meant to be used. And then I think "Well, it's worth going in on a Saturday night and playing these records in the way in which I play them. I tend to be immodest about it sometimes, but it being the 400th program, the fact probably that I had a couple of glasses of chianti, makes me think: "Damn it, sometimes it is worthwhile saying that. This is the way music occasionally ought to be heard. It's not just there to be bought, it's there to be listened to, it's there to be used." And I end up saying the same thing over and over again. And although my opinion about things does change from time to time, it's still something that I believe in, and it's there for you to use. And if Steve Forbert suggested "It isn't gonna be that way". Well, let it be another way. It's still up you basically, to make what you will of it, in other words: "How do you hang on to a dream"«

³⁶³ "Tim Hardin, how can we hang on to a dream. Perhaps by putting a downpayment on the room at the Memory Motel"

³⁶⁴ »The answer, if you like, to Steve Forbert's It "Isn't Gonna Be That Way", Ian Hunter and the story of Irene Wilde, and before that the Rolling Stones and "Memory Motel". And that's a song that I use as example to all those people that seem to think that the Rolling Stones are over the hill and too old. Show me a new band that can come up with a song like that. A new band not in ten years time will be able to come up with a song like that. I can't think of one. It's not gonna be Heaven Seventeen and it's not gonna be. The Human League and I don't care if I'm prejudice, but that song is one of the best songs that I've ever heard. As indeed is the next one, which I've again not played for a long time but had played a lot in the past. Tonight I'd like to play it especially for someone who 's listened to this program regularly for the last years and is now moving to England. His girl-friend, Helga, has already gone to England. I know, that he is listening tonight, so, Peter, this next one is especially for you. I hope you have a nice time in England, and this is Gay & Terry Woods and "Back To You"«

"Jan Kerouac (16. Februar 1952 in Albany, New York; † 5. Juni 1996), mit vollem Namen Janet Michelle Keroac, war eine US-amerikanische Schriftstellerin und die einzige Tochter von Jack Kerouac, einem der wichtigsten Vertreter der Beat Generation, und Joan Haverty Kerouac, seiner zweiten Ehefrau. Ihr Vater bestritt die Vaterschaft und sie wuchs bei ihrer Mutter auf.*

Ihren Vater traf sie nur zweimal: Einmal im Alter von zehn Jahren bei einer Gerichtsverhandlung, in der er zu einer Unterhaltszahlung von 52 US-Dollar verpflichtet wurde, und ein zweites Mal im Alter von 15 Jahren, auf einer Reise nach Lowell. Zu dieser Zeit begann sie ihr bewegtes Leben on the road. Gemeinsam mit einem Freund trampelte sie durch die USA, lebte von Gelegenheitsjobs und begann zu schreiben. Sie heiratete zweimal und wurde genauso oft geschieden. Sie veröffentlichte zwei halb autobiografische Bücher.

1981 erschien ihr erstes Werk Baby Driver. Jan Kerouac beschreibt darin unter anderem die beiden Treffen mit ihrem Vater und Erfahrungen mit Drogen und Sex.

1988 erscheint ihr zweites Werk Trainsong, das da ansetzt, wo Baby Driver aufgehört hat. Im 22. Kapitel von Trainsong beschreibt sie unter anderem eine Situation, in der sie für den Hollywood-Film Heart Beat eine Statistenrolle angeboten bekam. In diesem Film ging es um die Dreiecksbeziehung ihres Vaters Jack Kerouac zu Neal Cassady und seiner Frau Carolyn Cassady.

Während sie Baby Driver und Trainsong schrieb, lernte sie einige Künstler-Freunde ihres zu diesem Zeitpunkt bereits verstorbenen Vaters kennen: Carolyn Cassady, Allen Ginsberg, William S. Burroughs, Peter Orlovsky, Lawrence Ferlinghetti und Gregory Corso.

Nach dem Tod ihrer Mutter zog sie nach Puerto Rico, wo sie am Strand ihr drittes Buch Parrot Fever schreiben wollte. Bevor sie es vollenden konnte, erkrankte sie an einer seltenen Blutkrankheit und musste wegen Nierenproblemen wieder zurück nach New York, wo sie mit nur 44 Jahren starb.

Aufgrund ihres frühen Todes konnte sie das literarische Erbe ihres Vaters nicht mehr antreten.“ (Wikipedia 8.1.15)

Wikipedia abgerufen 18.1.15 “Scott Walker”:

„Climate of Hunter (1983), seine nächste Platte, erlangte zweifelhaften Ruhm als das schlechtest verkaufte Album der Plattenfirma Virgin. Hoch gelobt von den Kritikern war dieses Album für die Plattenfirma Virgin ein Desaster. Einerseits mag das an der Vermarktung gelegen haben, andererseits fehlte aber auch jegliche popmusikalische Attitüde. Nie klang Billy Ocean, der als Gastmusiker auf einem Song die zweite Stimme singen durfte, seltsamer. Auch Mark Knopfler, der Kopf und Gründer der bekannten Band Dire Straits, stellte als Gastmusiker sein Können auf der Akustikgitarre bei dem Stück Blanket Roll Blues unter Beweis.

Es ist kein Geheimnis, dass Scott Walker in den 1970er Jahren massive Alkohol- und Drogenprobleme hatte. Er selbst bezeichnete sich einmal als „faul“.

Für Scott Walker war jedoch Climate of Hunter ein erneuter Befreiungsschlag. Frei von Konventionen konnte er seine teils höchst ungewöhnlichen musikalischen Ideen umsetzen.

Erst 1995 folgte das Album Tilt, das die Hörserschaft endgültig spaltete: Die Meinungen reichen von „bestes Album aller Zeiten“ (David Bowie) bis hin zu „Kunstkacke“.

Inzwischen aber bei amazon.de sehr gut bewertet.

³⁸³ Youtube: RECORDED IN 1941. Theodore Shaw "Teddy" Wilson (November 24, 1912 July 31, 1986) was a jazz pianist from the United States born in Austin, Texas. His sophisticated and elegant style graced the records of many of the biggest names in jazz, including Louis Armstrong, Lena Horne, Benny Goodman, Billie Holiday and Ella Fitzgerald. He is considered one of the most influential jazz pianists of all time.Wilson studied piano and violin at Tuskegee Institute. After working in the Lawrence "Speed" Webb band, with Louis Armstrong and also "understudying" Earl Hines in Hines's Grand Terrace Cafe Orchestra, Wilson joined Benny Carter's Chocolate Dandies in 1933. In 1935 he joined the Benny Goodman Trio (which consisted of Goodman, Wilson and drummer Gene Krupa, later expanded to the Benny Goodman Quartet with the addition of Lionel Hampton). The trio performed during the big band's intermissions. By joining the trio, Wilson became the first black musician to perform in public with a previously all-white jazz group. The noted jazz writer and producer John Hammond was instrumental in getting Wilson a contract with Brunswick, starting in 1935, to record hot swing arrangements of the popular songs of the day, with the growing jukebox trade in mind. He recorded fifty hit records with various singers such as Lena Horne and Helen Ward, including many of Billie Holiday's greatest successes. During these years he also took part in many highly regarded sessions with a wide range of important swing musicians, such as Lester Young, Roy Eldridge, Charlie Shavers, Red Norvo, Buck Clayton and Ben Webster. Wilson formed his own short-lived big band in 1939, then led a sextet at Cafe Society from 1940 to 1944. He was dubbed the "Marxist Mozart" by Howard "Stretch" Johnson due to his support for left-wing causes he performed in benefit concerts for The New Masses journal and for Russian War Relief, and chaired the Artists' Committee to elect Benjamin J. Davis.[1] In the 1950s he taught at the Juilliard School. Wilson can be seen appearing as himself in the motion picture The Benny Goodman Story (1955). Wilson lived quietly in suburban Hillsdale, NJ in the 1960s and 1970s. He performed as a soloist, and with pick-up groups until the final years of his life. Teddy Wilson died on July 31, 1986.

Wow... what a treat to have this song posted for all of us to enjoy. What a flood of emotions and great memories. I was just a guy who floated around So Cal finding good music and taking it all in. I first met you at an "Open Mike" night at the Ice House in Pasadena CA. My buddy and I were there to show off our stuff but you just blew us away. As for Mr. Hartford, I once took an empty mandolin case to one of his concerts and was able to bluff my way backstage and got to meet John. What a night!!

What a? great backstage story..! Actually, when I was trying to get started in L.A. I did the very same thing at the Hollywood Bowl just to meet Gordon Lightfoot..And, it worked...And, now as I recall...it worked just about every time...I'm sure John would have a good laugh at that one...!

„Moin!

... Ich habe gerade festgestellt, dass Alan die KG von Sam Shepard am 24.02.1985 vorgetragen hat. Ich hatte bisher nur Schnipsel dieser Sendung, aufgenommen auf Kassette - aber jede Note, jedes Wort kann ich auswendig ... integraler Bestandteil meines Lebens.

Was die Arbeit an der Playlist angeht:

Als Germanist kann ich nur konstatieren, dass es sich um eine philologische Meisterleistung handelt, die ihresgleichen sucht.

Als Deutschlehrer kann man leider nur 15 Punkte vergeben - aber die sind in diesem Fall mehr als angebracht!

Herzliche Grüße ...

Uli"

⁴⁶⁵ Die Sendung „Hawk Moon“, datiert von Ulrich auf den 24.2.85, ist identisch mit der einst mal versprochenen Sendung/PL unter dem hier lange - auch mit diesem Datum! - angekündigten Namen: „The Curse of the Black Feather“.

HM bietet 3/2016 mit einer MC ein neues Datum (18.5.86), eröffnet aber die Möglichkeit, die "Pfungstsendung 18.5. 86" als nur auf der zweiten Seite der MC aufgenommen zu begreifen. Seite A dieser MC erweitert die "Hawk Moon" Sendung aber nach vorne!

⁴⁶⁶ Bezug auf deutschsprachige Sendung zu "Paris, Texas" siehe auch 10.2.85 dort ebenfalls Bezugnahme auf (die) dt. Sendung!

Live Aid war am 13.7.1985 (From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia)

"Live Aid was a multi-venue rock music concert held on July 13, 1985 (1985-07-13). The event was organized by Bob Geldof and Midge Ure to raise funds for famine relief in Ethiopia. Billed as the 'global jukebox', the event was held simultaneously in Wembley Stadium, London (attended by 72,000 people) and JFK Stadium, Philadelphia (attended by about 99,000 people). On the same day, concerts inspired by the initiative happened in other countries, such as Australia and Germany. It was one of the largest-scale satellite link-ups and television broadcasts of all time: an estimated 400 million viewers, across 60 countries, watched the live broadcast."

Dunkelziffer:

„Die Gründungsmitglieder der Band mit dem tiefgründigen Namen waren Helmut Zerlett (Keyboard), Josefa Martens (Gesang), Stefan Krachten (Drums), Wolfgang Schubert (Saxophon), Matthias Keul, (Keyboard), sowie Reiner Linke und Olek Gelba (Percussions). Den Einfall, die Gruppe Dunkelziffer zu gründen, hatten Helmut, Stefan und Reiner in Südfrankreich. Es sollte eine Band sein, bei der es keine starren Strukturen gibt, sondern jeder Komponist sein kann und alle gleichberechtigt ihre Kreativität und Spontaneität einbringen können, wenn der Moment da ist, in dem sie eine Idee haben. Das Vorbild für Dunkelziffer war die Gruppe CAN, die ohne vorbereitete Stücke auf die Bühne gehen konnte und es schaffte, die Leute mit spontanen Direktkompositionen zu unterhalten...

Im Laufe der Zeit kamen neue Mitglieder hinzu, wie beispielsweise Rike Gratt (Bassistin), Dominik von Senger (Gitarre), Damo Suzuki (Gesang), Coco (Sängerin) oder Raji Susanne Atorf (Gesang). Fast alle Mitglieder von Dunkelziffer beteiligten sich auch an anderen Projekten. So spielten zum Beispiel Helmut Zerlett und Stefan Krachten auch bei The Unknown Cases und später bei Trance Groove. Raji Susanne Atorf sang unter anderem auch für Endstation Sehnsucht und der in Köln lebende Japaner Damo Suzuki kam von CAN. Mit Damo Suzukis Hilfe wurde ein Konzertmitschnitt von Dunkelziffer in Japan veröffentlicht.“

498 nächsten März BAP im Rockpalast: „BAP hat in der Rockpalast-Geschichte eine ebenso bedeutende Rolle gespielt wie etwa Rory Gallagher. BAP waren so auch die erste Wahl bei einem Ereignis, das eigentlich wenig erfreulich war, aber durch den Auftritt der Band doch zu einem Fest wurde. Der "letzte Walzer", das letzte Rockpalast-Festival in der Grugahalle Essen am 15. März 1986. Die Medienlandschaft hatte sich verändert, durch das Erscheinen der Privatsender endete die "Monopolstellung" der öffentlich-rechtlichen Anstalten. Die Einschaltquote hielt Einzug. Und man glaubte, dass jetzt die Zeit der Video-Clips gekommen sei. Der Rockpalast konnte - als "special interest"- oder Minderheiten-Programm nicht mithalten. Die Nacht war schon weit im Voraus ausverkauft. Das war BAP zu verdanken, dem Garanten für ausverkaufte Konzerte.“

⁵⁰⁶ They Killed the Guitar Solos! I am totally in agreement with the reviewers who were disappointed by the absence of the Vai-Machio solo-fest. That part of the movie was integral with the story, so it is curious as to why the songs have been deleted. Anyway, as a rabid neoclassical heavy metal fan, I was extremely disappointed with this soundtrack. If you have to get those previously mentioned tidbits, I would recommend buying the video and recording it onto cassette, or burn a CD yourself. The Ralph Maccio acoustic guitar solo where he was thrown out of The Jularid School for inserting the blues riff was based on Mozart's "Rondo Alla Turka." The major theme of the Vai solofest was based on Niccolò Paganini's 24th caprice. Eliot Fisk does an awesome job of playing Paganini's 24 Caprices on guitar, otherwise Yehudi Menuhin or Itzhak Perlman tear it up on violin. Good luck to the disappointed heavy metal guitar fans out there.

10.12. 1986 Nachtrack.....Tape 03

Datum unsicher

"Minimal Compact heute abend hier in Köln; am Donnerstag Parachute Club in Köln das einzige Konzert überhaupt in Europa in diesem Jahr von Parachute Club"; Ihre neue LP... (1984 sic!)

"Am Donnerstag Parachute Club im Stollwerk"

Tape 03 wenn's zusammengehört (bisher spricht nichts dagegen) muss es dann nach der VÖ von "Living in the 20th century" sein. Also 12/86 ist sinnvoll; dann bliebe der 10.12. ein möglicher Termin. Alternativ freie Termine in der Nähe wären noch: 05. oder 12. November bzw. 03. Dezember (im Tausch mit Tape 09)

"Im letzten Monat, also im Dezember"

Datum fast sicher

- 1.) Eine eigtl. grundsätzliche Chronologie der "Tape"-Reihe unterstellend sind 12 13 14 alles Januar Nachträge, da Tape 15 vom 04.02. 1987 ist.
- 2.) Dann käme für Tape 12 als Termin infrage: 07. oder 14. Januar.
- 3.) Es gibt in der Sendung keinen Hinweis auf einen Datumsanhalt z.B. 'die erste Sendung im neuen Jahr', so dass ich geneigt bin, als Sendedatum den 14.01. 1987 einzusetzen. Dann aber bleiben unter gleichen Konditionen (siehe 1.) für die Tapes 13 und 14 nur die Sendetermine 21.01. 1987 und 28.01. 1987.
- 4.) Wäre Tape 12 vom 07.01. 1987 bleiben für die Tapes 13 und 14 jeweils ein Termenspielraum von jeweils 2 Wochen.
- 5.) Tape 13 ist vom 21.01.! (HS 17.02.10)

"Drei Songs von der neuen LP von der Zeltinger Band" (1.4.87)

⁵⁶⁵ Adagio for Strings ist ein Stück der klassischen Musik für Streichorchester, komponiert von Samuel Barber im Jahr 1938. The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra (Conducted By Georges Delerue)

⁵⁶⁶ Es ist ein Arrangement des zweiten Satzes seines Streichquartetts String Quartet No. 1 aus dem Jahr 1936. Die Uraufführung fand am 5. November 1938 unter Arturo Toscanini mit dem NBC Symphony Orchestra in New York statt. 1967 erstellte Barber eine Fassung für achtstimmigen Chor als Vertonung des Agnus Dei.

Platoon - Chris Taylor: "I think now, looking back, we did not fight the enemy, we fought ourselves, and the enemy was in us. The war is over for me now, but it will always be there, the rest of my days. As I'm sure Elias will be, fighting with Barnes for what Rhah calls "possession of my soul." There are times since, I've felt like a child, born of those two fathers. But be that as it may, those who did make it have an obligation to build again. To teach to others what we know, and to try with whats left of our lives to find a goodness and a meaning to this life." <http://en.wikiquote.org/wiki/Platoon>

⁵⁷⁴ "Letzten Donnerstag in München hat David Bowie eine Pressekonferenz gegeben. Er sagte, dass er die erste LP der Woodentops ganz gut gefunden hätte. Das wollten wir alle wissen, oder nicht? Und er meinte auch, dass Big Audio Dynamite ne ganz interessante Gruppe ist. Und bewies natürlich damit, dass auch David Bowie nicht perfekt ist. Aber seine Lieblingsplatte im Moment wäre die LP "Gun Shy" von Screaming Blue Messiahs."

⁵⁷⁵ "Ich find die Platte auch ganz gut, aber niemand hat mich danach gefragt."

⁵⁷⁶ Ich hab letzte Woche in dieser Sendung drei Songs aus der neuen LP von der Zeltinger Band gespielt (-> "Tape 20" 22.4.87)

-> Cissy Kraner⁵⁷⁷: Der Novak läßt mich nicht verkommen

"Prominente aus Wien" 79

o Dr. John ??.....

⁵⁷⁷ „Nach einem klassischen Gesangsstudium und einigen Engagements als Soubrette wandte sich die Wienerin bald dem Kabarett zu und trat auf verschiedenen Kleinkunsthöfen auf. 1938 ging sie mit einer Revuebühne auf Gastspiele nach Bogotá, wo sie Hugo Wiener kennenlernte. Sie begann mit ihm aufzutreten, und nach ihrer Hochzeit 1943 eröffneten sie in Caracas gemeinsam eine kleine gutgehende Exilanten-Bar, in der Kraner die Chansons ihres Mannes in fünf verschiedenen Sprachen vortrug. Sie wurde zwar zum Reichsarbeitsdienst beordert, blieb aber bei ihrem Mann, da er jüdischer Herkunft war. Nach dem Krieg kamen die beiden 1948 nach Wien zurück, wo sofort Kraners Karriere im Ensemble des Kabarett Simpl begann, die bis 1965 dauerte. In dieser Zeit entstanden Hugo Wieners Chansons Der Novak läßt mich nicht verkommen, Ich wünsch' mir zum Geburtstag einen Vorderzahn oder Ich kann den Novotny nicht leiden, die durch ihren Vortrag legendär wurden. Von 1950 bis zum Frühjahr 1951 spielte sie am "Lachenden Kabarett" in der Melodies Bar (Annagasse 3, St. Annahof) neben Hugo Wiener und Maxi Böhm. 1985 holte sie der Wiener Regisseur und Choreograf Bernd Roger Bienert an die Wiener Staatsoper, um mit Cissy Kraner in der Hauptrolle die Uraufführung eines Musiktheaterwerkes des österreichischen Komponisten Gottfried von Einem unter dem lautmalerschen Titel „Rads Datz“ zu kreieren. Das Stück wurde an der Wiener Staatsoper zum solitären Vorreiter der heutigen performativen Tendenzen an den Theatern, versagte Bienert doch dem Tanz seine Gefolgschaft und konzentrierte sich auf die Umsetzung der Texte von Lotte Ingrisch in der Interpretation durch Kraner. Die Premiere geriet zu einem „succès de scandale“, da man unter anderem nicht die damals beinahe siebzigjährige Diseuse Cissy Kraner als „tanzende“ Solistin in einem Ballett auf der Bühne der Wiener Staatsoper erwartet hatte. Der Auftritt Kraners an der Wiener Staatsoper gilt als Beweis für ihren Mut, sich auch für unangepasst Neues und Nichtalltägliches einzusetzen. Hugo Wiener starb 1993, seither wurde Cissy Kraner bei ihren Chansons von Herbert Prikopa begleitet. Cissy Kraner ist am 1. Februar 2012 im Künstlerheim Baden verstorben.[2] Am 15. Februar wurde sie am Wiener Zentralfriedhof im Ehrengrab von Hugo Wiener (Gruppe 33G, Nummer 2) beigesetzt.[3] Im Jahr 2013 wurde der Cissy-Kraner-Platz im 4. Bezirk Wieden nach ihr benannt; dieser befindet sich in der Nähe des nach ihrem Mann benannten Hugo-Wiener-Platzes.“ (Wikipedia 16.02. 2015)

⁵⁸⁴ VÖ-Datum von: LastFM.de

⁵⁸⁵ The Last Waltz was a concert by the Canadian rock group, The Band, held on American Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 1976, at Winterland Ballroom in San Francisco.

The Last Waltz was advertised as the end of The Band's illustrious touring career.[1] and the concert saw The Band joined by more than a dozen special guests, including Paul Butterfield, Eric Clapton, Neil Diamond, Bob Dylan, Emmylou Harris, Ronnie Hawkins, Dr. John, Joni Mitchell, Van Morrison, Ringo Starr, Muddy Waters, Ronnie Wood and Neil Young.

The event was filmed by director Martin Scorsese and made into a documentary of the same name, released in 1978. The film features concert performances, scenes shot on a studio soundstage and interviews by Scorsese with members of The Band. A triple-LP soundtrack recording was issued in 1978. (wikipedia.org)

⁵⁹⁹ Rory Gallagher born William Rory Gallagher (2 March, 1948 - 14 June, 1995) was an Irish blues-rock musician, songwriter, guitarist, and bandleader. Born in Ballyshannon, County Donegal, Ireland, and raised in Cork City, Gallagher recorded solo albums throughout the 1970's and 1980's, after being part of the band Taste during the late 1960s. A multi-instrumentalist, Rory Gallagher's albums have sold in excess of 30 million copies worldwide.[Gallagher received a liver transplant in 1994, but died of complications in 1995 in London, England aged 47. ⁶⁰⁶ <http://www.songfacts.com/detail.php?id=579> The Memory Motel is in Montauk on Long Island. It's near The Church Estate, which Andy Warhol bought in 1972. Arthur Schneider, who owns the Memory Motel, told us that The Stones stayed at Warhol's estate when they were on tour in 1975-'76. (They were good friends with Warhol, who designed the Sticky Fingers album cover.) Since the Memory Motel was the only place in the area with a pool table and a piano, The Stones would occasionally come by and hang out at the bar. The owners at the time were not impressed - they hated The Stones. It's widely speculated that "Hannah Honey" with the curled nose is none other than Carly Simon. Jagger had been romantically linked to Carly around this time, and her physical traits are eerily similar to the song's descriptions. One theory is that Simon wrote "You're So Vain" after a one-night-stand with Jagger at The Memory Motel. Simon has never said who that song is about. (thanks, Justin - New York, NY) Mick Jagger and Keith Richards duet on vocals. Richards did not play guitar on this. With Mick Taylor gone, The Stones were auditioning lead guitarists while recording Black And Blue. Harvey Mandel from Canned Heat played lead on this while session man Wayne Perkins played acoustic, but Ron Wood eventually got the job. Jagger played the acoustic piano, Richards the electric piano, and Billy Preston the synthesizer. On their live album No Security, Dave Matthews duets with Jagger in place of Richards. Matthews joined The Stones onstage from time to time and also sang this with Jagger on a televised St. Louis concert in 1997. (thanks, Bertrand - Paris, France)

18.11. 1987 Nachrock.....Tape 38
Buss- und Bettag ?

War eine 4-std Sendung möglich am 30.09.// 7.10.1987; wenn ja, warum? Weit und breit kein Feiertag!

16.10.14: Sommerzeit Wechsel??

Auch 07.10. 87 möglich, wenn dort 4-std. Sendung hat sein können

Gab es an diesem Tag einen 4-stündigen Nachrock?

Tape 38 A AB kündigt einen 4-stündige Sendung an: "weiterhin" läßt auf Beginn der 2., 3. oder 4. Stunde schließen
 Tape 38 B "Neue Platte" von Comebuckley (Schweiz) wurde veröffentlicht am 28.09. 1987

Tape 38 B "Hai sai oji san" wurde Oktober 1987 veröffentlicht.

Da bisherige 4-stündige Sendungen auf Feiertagen lagen, ist einziger infrage kommender Feiertag der 18.11. 1987
 Problem: Lt. discogs wurde Barmy Army "As sharp as a needle" erst in 01/88 veröffentlicht. Die LP gar noch später.
 Note: AB kündigt hier aber den falschen Titel an (Habe es via amazon.com klären können), heißt aber nix, weil gleiche Si...

Möglich - aber unwahrscheinlich -, dass Tape 38 A vom 18.11. 1987 und Tape 38 B aus 01/88 stammt..... die VÖ-Daten müssen nicht immer stimmen - schon gar nicht in Bezug auf bei / von AB gespielten Terminen

Ist Tape 38 die zweite und dritte Stunde vom 18. 11. oder die erste (ohne Hi) und zweite Stunde in umgekehrter Reihenfolge aufgenommen ??

Tape 39 ist spät. vom 14.10. In der Tape-Chronologie wäre Tape 38 dann spät. vom 7.10.....

Wenn Tape 38 in der Chronologie terminiert wird, müsste es der 7. Oktober 87 sein, dann wäre Tape 37 der 30. September und für die Tapes 44 bis 47 entstünde ein begrenzter Spielraum von jeweils 2 Wochen.

- Johnny London: Drivin' slow
- o⁶²⁰ The Cramps: Garbage man "Songs the Lord taught us" 80
- o Undisputed Truth: Ball of confusion

- Buddy Holly & The Crickets : O Boy (covered by Mud)
- o Kool Moe Dee: 50 ways
- The Coolies: The 59 St. Bridge Song (Feeling groovy)
- o Paul Simon: Rene and Georgette Magritte with their dog after the war "Hearts and Bones" 83
- Five Satins: In the still of the night
- o Comebuckley: Blue melody vö 28.09 87
- Tim Buckley: Hong Kong Bar "Greetings From L.A." 72
- o Ry Cooder: Going back to Okinawa "Get Rhythm" 87

⁶³⁴ (<http://mitchryder.net/forums/index.php?topic=197.0>)

Hi there! I found an old tape with a radiotune made by Alan Bangs (AB). On this tape / In this tune AB says that "Yesterday Mitch Ryder had a concert in Bonn Biskuithall" (Because of a german spoken radiotune he said it in german - whilst the weekly "ARD- Nachtrack"). Now I'd like to date that tune and because there is no other informations given during that radiotune but this "yesterday concert" I ask you for help. That radiotune should be taken around November 87 to January 88. When in that time played Mitch Ryder in Bonn, Germany. Or does anyone have Tourdates /Gig-history-Information for that time: Mitch Ryder in Germany 1987; 1988 especially Bonn Biskuithalle. By the way I danced and sung with MR 2003 26.01. in Rheinberg, Germany. My first and only concert with MR til yet. Hope for some creative answers H. Hallo, das Konzert in der Biskuithalle in Bonn war am 11.01.1988, eine Woche vor dem legendären Konzert im Palast der Republik, bei dem die LP Red Blood, White Mink aufgenommen wurde. Gruß R.

⁶³⁸ “StupydBoyz December 1, 2009 edited over 4 years ago referencing I'm In Love With A German Film Star, 7", Single, POSP 222, 2059 314

Here is a monument of the 80's new wave, with an extremely simple structure, this song kicks right to heart. 3 elements compose this short moment of magic, pure as a crystal piece : a basic repetitive drum-bass rhythmic, a marvelous guitar that surfs on the echo (I can't remember having heard a better way to use a volume control pedal and a delay effect), and a sensual female voice. Quite 30 years later, the power of bewitchment has stilled the same. Thank you The passions, for this great piece of emotion.” (discogs)

22.06. 1988 Nachtrack ...Tape 62 A ->Tape 67 B (!)

6.2.2010 Recherche: „Tape 67“

Tape 67 muss aus zwei unterschiedlichen Sendungen bestehen:

67 A wird wohl der Anfang vom 13.04. 88 sein!

67 B hat zu 67 A anderen "AB"-Klang;

67 B Verweis auf das dritte Patti Smith Stück zu Beginn der zweiten Stunde!!

67 B Hinweis, dass vor Nachr. noch ein Stück lief - da passen niemals dann auch noch zwei Patti Smith Stücke hin! Die neue Patti Smith LP It amazon.com erst in 6/88 vö.

8.2.2010 Recherche Tape 62

"2:1 verloren" von Relevanz wären nur Länderspiele: Länderspiel an einem Dienstag. Keine für die WM 90 Quali. EM in Deutschland vom 10.6.-25.6.: Deutschland - Niederlande 1:2 am 21.6.1988 in HH

29.06. 1988 NachtrackTape 65 A

Tanzmusik und Reggae - Der Reggae-Vortrag in der VHS Kaarst....

"Am Sonntag Michael Jackson im Müngersdorfer Stadion (03.07. 1988) - > 29.06. 1988

Ebenfalls am Sonntag (03.07. 1988) Reggae Festival auf der Loreley!

"Konzert für Nelson Mandela vor zwei Wochen" (->11.06. 1988 Wembley Stadion) (also vor 2 1/2 Wochen)

Dass die amazon Daten, die Original Releases betreffend, nicht zwangsläufig stimmen, zeigt die Platte von Sly & Robbie "The Summit", die laut AB "soeben erschienen ist", bei amazon.com aber mit '19. July 1988' angegeben wird.

Das Konzert von Jackson mit den entsprechenden Daten hat mehr Beweisgewicht!

- Mickey Dread.....: Jumping Master
- o Shinehead: Billy Jean (M. Jackson Cover auf Reggae)
- o Culture: Mr. Music
- o Desmond Dekker: 007 (Shanty town)

13.07. 1988 NachtrackTape 65 B nur 2. Stunde

Termin bleibt unsicher mgl auch -> 20.07. 1988

Tape 65 B: "Konzert für Nelson Mandela vor kurzem" (->11.06. 1988 Wembley Stadion)

'Vor zwei Wochen' ist die 2. Stunde mit 29.06. besetzt

Tape 65 B also frühestens 13.07. (-> 06.07. ist mit Tape 63 A besetzt)

Kann das die 2. Stunde zu einer der beiden Tape 64 1. Stunde sein (Tape 64 A ist 20.07.88 !) (mit Tape 65 B wäre gemeinsam der 13.07. mgl)

20.07. 1988 Nachtrack Tape 64 A Nur 1. Stunde

"vor zwei Wochen mit Sly and Robbie auf der Loreley"

-> eher der 20.07. als der 13.07. - wenn man bedenkt, dass AB von Dienstag an rückwärts rechnet 13.07. 2.

Stunde auch mit 65 B besetzt / wenn Tape 65 B nicht die zweite Stunde vom 20.07. ist.

"Outrider" vor etwa 4 Wochen veröffentlicht (wikipedia.org: 19.06.88)

- * Gettovetts: Battle call MSi 88

03.08. 1988 NachtrackTape 54

Datum sehr fraglich, weil keiner sagen kann, wann die Mitch Ryder Live LP herausgekommen ist. das Live Konzert war "am 18.01. dieses Jahres". Die Platte wird also im Sommer 1988 auf den Markt gekommen sein. Der 03.08. 1988 ist der erste freie Termin, wenn der 01.06. 1988 nicht falsch belegt ist, der infrage kommt.

"Bryan Adams ist dagegen eine Null"

24.08. 1988 Nachtrack Tape 68

vermutlich 24.08. oder eine oder zwei Wochen früher

Tape 68 macht wie Tape 69 einen vorproduzierten Eindruck: Nicht einmal eine Anspielung auf eine Musik vor einem VF. Ganz technisch. bis auf einen Versprecher, der nur beim Schneiden entstanden sein kann: "Sehr beängstigend" (im letzten AB-Beitrag)

In der Chronologie der Tapes wäre das jetzt vor Tape 69 in etwa also der 24.08. 1988

- * Doll By Doll: The human face 79
- o Wire: Silk skin paws "A Bell Is A Cup... Until It Is Struck" 88
- o Pete Townshend: Face the face (live)

31.08. 1988 NachtrackTape 69 "Städte"

Vermutlich 31.08. oder eine Woche früher

Tape 69 macht durch und durch einen vorproduzierten Eindruck: Nicht mal eine Anspielung auf eine Musik vor einem VF – wie sonst immer: "und davor..." !

Wenn die "3 Wochen bis zum Banshees Konzert" (Tape 70) insoweit stimmen, dass Tape 70 der 7.09.88 wäre, könnte Tape 69 als Vorproduziertes auf dieses Datum oder kurz davor passen.

- * Nite City (ft. Ray Manzarek): Nite city "Nite City" 77

07.09. 1988 Nachtrack.....Tape 70

"Bin gestern aus dem Urlaub gekommen" -> Die Sendungen davor sind also Vorproduzierte?

Die Städtesendung könnte eine sein! (Tape 69 ->keine Anspielung auf irgendwas, nicht mal auf VF!!)

The Feelies "Only Life" "letzten Montag in Deutschland veröffentlicht"; amazon.com nennt 13.09.88 (in D eine Wo vorher vö?)

"In 3 Wochen beginnt D-Tour von Siouxsie and the Banshees"; untiedundone.com kennt gig history der Band:

24.09. 88 HH; 26.09. D'f; 29.09. M; 30.09. MA; 1.10. MS (cancelled); 4.10. B.

"3 Wo" vor dem 24.09. kann für Nachtrack folgende Termine bedeuten: 31.08. oder 07.09;

AB nennt als Sendetag für den Nachtrack den "Dienstag", er hat also (von Di 06.09. an gesehen) einen Tag mehr Luft, um "3 Wo" voll zukriegen, denn der 31.08. wäre 3 1/2 Wo vor Tourstart.

Das wäre auch näher an dem (amerik.) Feelies-Termin.

21.09. 1988 NachrockTape 71

Termin ist der erstmögliche nach der Veröffentlichung von Run DMC "Mary Mary" in der LP Version (LP vom 16.09. 1988) Die Single wurde aber schon deutlich früher vö, daher ist obiger Termin mehr als fraglich vor den folgenden Infos!!

Würde aber in die Tape-Chronologie passen!

Nach 7/88 und vor dem 2.8.

13.07. wäre unter diesen Gesichtspunkten möglich, wenn nur die Alkohol Stunde woanders platziert werden kann und Teil B die 2. Stunde vom 20.07. ist. Wann hat die Scheidung Oskar und Margret Lafontaine stattgefunden? Demnächst neue George Clinton Solo LP ->"The Cinderella Theory" 2.8.89

10.05. 1989 Nachrock „Back from Los Angeles“ auch 03.05. oder 17.05 möglich

"1989_11_05_Bangs_nachrock_Back From LA" Problem: es gibt weder den 5.11. 89 noch den 11.05. 89 als Sendedatum!
Beschleunigt um 100/96.500
Sendung jetzt insgesamt 100:55 Min (1:40.55 h) lang. Es fehlen gut 16 Minuten!

Die letzten zwei Sendungen mussten vor drei Wochen vorproduziert werden

„Zwei Wochen LA... nur ein Konzert ...das Schlimmste, was ich je erlebt habe.. unerträglich“ JA haben innerhalb von zwei Wochen 7x mal gespielt“ Jane's Addiction, - 7 Konzerte in einem Amphitheater gaben: Die Konzerte waren vom 20.04. bis 29.04. 1989. -> http://janesaddiction.org/tour/tour_list.phtml?artistID=1&year=1989 die Konzerte sind also alle vorbei, als AB wieder in D war. Dafür ist der frühest mögliche Rückreise-Tag der 1.5 und als Sendedatum dann heute der 3.5. Wenn Sendetag 10.5. dann hatte er -falls nach dem 19.4. abgereist- fast die ganze Konzertterminreihe Zeit –JA zu sehen.

Wenn er am 1. Tag LA den letzten Konzerttermin wahrgenommen hat, kann dieser Nachrock am 17.05 ausgestrahlt worden sein – aber nicht später!. (Dann kann die letzte BR NR Sendung auch am 26.04. noch stattgefunden haben – dass sie im April war, steht fest.)

- Daniel Lanois: Silium's Hill "Acadie" CD
- x Robbie Robertson: Hell's half acre

⁶⁹⁰ Released as a promotional single at the same time that the When Love Comes to Town commercial single was released. The single came without any artwork. There was a sticker affixed to the front of the case announcing the remix of God Part II and Desire, as well as the inclusion of the Rattle and Hum b-sides. On the CD itself the version of Hallelujah Here She Comes is labelled as the Hollywood remix. But it isn't a remix. The song is the same as found on the b-side of the Desire single. (discogs)

⁷¹¹ Alan weist auf die Neuaufnahme dieses John Lee Hooker-Titels im Duett mit Van Morrison hin, den er damals schon „Rough mixes“ auf Kassette gehört hat. Es sollte im August 1991 erscheinen, das Album „Chill out“ mit diesem Duett finde ich aber erst 1995 auf Virgin). Auf youtube ist das Duett z.Z. unter <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pxWAaQmPtFA> als Liveaufnahme von 1990 zu sehen. Und Van Morrison baut sein „T.B. Sheets“ mit ein, siehe drittnächster Titel in dieser PL!

⁷¹³ Jetzt in Deutschland erschienen die neue LP von Guthrie Thomas „The Writer“ (in USA 1989 erschienen)...

Vor zwei oder drei Wochen über Chris Whitley gesprochen

⁷¹⁴ Als ich im letzten Jahr in New Orleans war; mehr von Chris Whitley später in dieser Sendung...

letzte Woche Dienstag (!) im Konzert von Bob Dylan gewesen, ich habe letzte Woche auch gesagt, dass Bob Dylan nicht gesagt hat, wer seine Begleitmusiker waren

⁷¹⁵ Tony Garnier und 1982 Marshall Crenshaw 1985 prod by T-Bone Burnett

⁷¹⁶ Produziert von Jackson Browne

⁷¹⁷ Der gute alte Guthrie.. es ist Jahre her, dass er für ein paar Wochen bei mir wohnte.. bereits die 20. LP von Guthrie Thomas

⁷¹⁸ Biografisches über Chris Whitley

⁷¹⁹ „Kate McGarrigle (* 6. Februar 1946 in Montreal, Québec; † 18. Januar 2010 ebenda) war eine kanadische Sängerin. Sie hatte eine Musikgruppe mit ihrer Schwester Anna und war die Mutter von Rufus und Martha Wainwright. Deren Vater ist McGarrigles Ex-Mann, der Musiker Loudon Wainwright III. Im Sommer 2006 erkrankte sie an Krebs und erlag dem Leiden am 18. Januar 2010.“ (Wikipedia; 1.1.15)

⁷²⁰ Ich habe letzte Woche meinen Bruder angerufen der zur Zeit in Italien lebt,... Heute morgen als ich kurz durch Hamburg ging, ich fand das sehr angenehm, dass es so Nieselregen gab

16 Einzeltracks

PL by HS 2015:

Erster Eindruck: Die 16 Tracks sind durcheinander oder von verschiedenen Sendungen:

1) „Hi“ zur Begrüßung zu Beginn von Track 6 (hat auch exif-Nummer 1 (!))

2) Auch scheinen die Redebeiträge nicht gut aufeinander zu schliessen – wie ist hier bloß gecuttet worden? die Redebeiträge sind manchmal eingeblendet, so dass sie nicht aneinander geklebt werden können.

Selbst wenn die drei Blöcke unten jeweils in sich zusammengehören, sind das doch Teile von mindestens 2 Sendungen! Thin White Rope könnte noch zum Beginn des obersten Blocks gehören... wenn es am Ende einer MC war und die Seite wurde umgedreht und weiteraufgenommen aber in umgekehrter Reihenfolge digitalisiert... (man kann's auch kompliziert machen!) Das Cutten (Blenden) in den Beiträgen hat hier Zusammengehörigkeitsnachweise zerstört.

Folgender Track 16 hat die laufende exif-Nummer 1

Thin White Rope: The Ruby Sea

⁷³⁸ Es gibt einen alten S+W Film (USA) gleichen Titels und handelt von einem "modernem" Simplicissimus.

⁷³⁹ Recorded live in Australia. Produced by C. Bailey. Chris Bailey: vocals, guitar + ? "The album was recorded all over the place-and sounds like it! It is definitely not recommended to Hi Fi buffs! The original intention was to do what the title suggests : capture the rawness of what Bailey was doing in his sabbatical year from the Saints in 1983.The result is a mixture of acoustic performance and raucous "soul & blues"covers with his "fun"band captured during that year. An interesting collection...!" SourceThis lp was only available through New Rose Records and has never been released like that in cd ... but you can find it on the "DM blues" a double cd with songs from the albums "Casablanca ", "Savage entertainment" and the EP "Do they come from you ?".

⁷⁵⁹ Mit der Veröffentlichung der LP „Rick is 21“ (Imperial LP-9152) strich Nelson das „y“ aus seinem Namen und veröffentlichte ab September 1961 unter dem Namen „Rick Nelson“. Rick Nelson starb am 31. Dezember 1985 bei einem Flugzeugabsturz in De Kalb in Texas auf dem Weg von Alabama zu einem Auftritt in Dallas/Texas. Mit ihm kamen seine Freundin Helen Blair und alle Mitglieder der "Stone Canyon Band" ums Leben. Bei der amtlichen Untersuchung des Unfalls wurden bei Nelson und vier seiner Bandmitglieder Spuren von Drogen im Blut gefunden, bei Nelson Kokain und Spuren eines starken Schmerzmittels. Er wurde auf dem Forest-Lawn-Friedhof in Hollywood beigesetzt.

⁷⁶⁶ Das Grunge-Projekt Temple Of The Dog wurde 1990 von Chris Cornell in Seattle gegründet und im selben Jahr auch aufgelöst. Nach dem Tod seines ehemaligen Mitbewohners und Freundes Andy Wood (Mother Love Bone), der am 19. März 1990 an einer Überdosis Heroin starb, schrieb Cornell zwei Songs (Say Hello 2 Heaven und Reach Down), die nicht zu der Musik passten, für die seine eigentliche Band Soundgarden stand, die er jedoch auch nicht verwerfen wollte. Zusammen mit dem Soundgarden-Schlagzeuger Matt Cameron und den Mother Love Bone Mitgliedern Jeff Ament und Stone Gossard (die mit Mike McCready dabei waren Pearl Jam zu formen) ging er ins Studio, um die beiden Songs als Single aufzunehmen. Hierbei entstanden eine Reihe neuer Songs, so dass man sich letztendlich entschloss, ein komplettes Album unter dem Namen Temple Of The Dog aufzunehmen und so Andy Woods zu gedenken. Da sich die Aufnahmen zu Temple Of The Dog mit denen von Pearl Jams Ten überschneiden, wurde Eddie Vedder (Pearl Jam) bei dem Song Hunger Strike mit eingebunden. Hierzu existiert auch ein Video. Die Ähnlichkeit zwischen dem Song Times Of Trouble und Pearl Jams Footsteps lässt sich ebenfalls mit der zeitgleichen Produktion der beiden Alben begründen. Es sind dieselben Akkorde, nur der Text unterscheidet sich. Eigentlich entstand der Song im Laufe des Songwritings für die Pearl-Jam-LP. Chris Cornell war jedoch so begeistert von der Musik, dass er einen eigenen Text hierzu schrieb. Der Name Temple Of The Dog leitet sich aus einer Textpassage von Andy Wood ab (Man of golden Words). Ihren ersten Live-Auftritt absolvierten Temple Of The Dog am 13. November 1990 im Off Ramp Cafe in Seattle, der gleichzeitig auch der einzige, komplette Gig der Band bleiben sollte. Die bislang letzte, bekannte Live-Performance fand am 28. Oktober 2003 im Rahmen eines Pearl-Jam-Konzerts in Santa Barbara statt. Die Band spielte in Originalbesetzung die beiden Songs 'Hunger Strike' und 'Reach Down'. http://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Temple_Of_The_Dog

⁷⁶⁷ Das Album wurde von den Kritikern teilweise gelobt, fand jedoch kaum Beachtung (angeblich nur 55.000 verkaufte Exemplare) <http://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Scialfa>

⁷⁷⁶ In 1991, guitarists Henry Kaiser and David Lindley brought a digital recording studio to Madagascar and spent 2 weeks recording as many top musicians as they could, sometimes playing along with them. Of all the world music I've heard, the music of Madagascar is by far my favorite, and this series is the best introduction you're going to find. That said, this CD is the weakest of the series--all the best material was used on Volume 1 (a second recording trip was made to produce Vol. 3). The best stuff here is by Dama Mahaleo, who the Shanachie label's liner notes invariably refer to as a cross between Bob Dylan and John Lennon. The tracks by his band Mahaleo, and his flatpicking on "Sambo de Gera", a duet with D'Gary, are splendid. Rossy and Tarika Sammy, a couple of my favorites, are here, but except for Rossy's "Tshai Akory Atao", these are not among their best songs. Rossy provides a cover of Merle Haggard's "I'm a Lonesome Fugitive", with Lindley singing the lead vocal. Roger Georges provides a salegy, a Malagasy dance beat in 12/8, with the accent on the second beat in each triplet. Sylvestre Randafison, a master of the valiha, a tubular zither with a harp-like sound, contributes the standard "Afindrafindao". The album opens with an accidental project by the recording engineer, who inadvertently taped a test drum machine recording onto a tape of lemur noises, and found they fit in perfect time together. You can't go wrong with any CD in this series, but to develop a proper love of Madagascar's music, go with Volume 1 if you can find it.

778 Stereoplay:

„Die Sensation ist perfekt: Velvet Underground; die Urzelle aller neuzeitlichen Untergrund-Bands, geht nach 20jähriger Pause in der originalen Quartett-Besetzung wieder auf Tournee. Ihrer Rolle als Säulenheilige des unverbogenen Minimal-Rock sind sich Lou Reed, John Clae, Sterling Morrison und Maureen "Moe" Tucker wohl bewußt – dafür sprechen schon die lateinischen Lettern in der Jahresangabe des jetzt auf CD festgehaltenen "Live"-Events. "MCMXCIII", 1993, im Juni, gastierten die vier Velvets für drei Nächte im ehrwürdigen Pariser "Olympia". Dort spielten sie ihr klassisches Schauerrepertoire, von "Venus in Furs" und "Femme Fatale" bis "White Light / White Heat", angereichert um weniger berühmte Underground-Perlen und den brandneuen Song "Coyote". Diese ergrauten Wüteriche sind, daran läßt der vorliegende Mitschnitt keinen Zweifel, "still crazy after all these years". An spontanen Beifallswellen des Publikums kann der CD-Hörer ablesen, dass einer der vier jung gebliebenen Exzentriker immer mal wieder auf einen effektgewissen Egotrip geht. Musikalisch lieben es die Velvets immer noch sehr laut, aber disziplinierter. Das macht, dass diese Livekonserven - kratzt man einmal das Goldlamé der Heldenverehrung ab und läßt man die unbestreitbare Qualität der Kompositionen außer acht - nicht viel mehr Aura hat als die mancher gestandenen "normalen" Rockband. Lou Reed & Co. legen hier eine spielerische Routine an den Tag, die das Dämonische, Unberechenbare, Bösertige, Kakophonische ihrer Kunst allenfalls erahnen läßt. Ausnahmen, wie John Claes Interpretation von "All Tomorrows Parties" und Teile des Finales, bestätigen die Regel.“

⁷⁷⁹ This cd is much more listenable and more interesting than you might expect from a bare description of what it is. Martin Craddick and his wife went to the home of the Baka pygmies in the rain forest of Cameroon, recorded their music, and then used that music as the inspiration for, and the backing tracks of, a fusion album called "Spirit of the Forest". This album, "Heart of the Forest", was later also released, and is the original field recordings. ⁸⁴⁷ Grant William McLennan (12 February 1958 – 6 May 2006) was an Australian singer-songwriter with the alternative rock band The Go-Betweens, which he co-founded with Robert Forster in Brisbane, Australia in 1977. In a career spanning almost thirty years, his work with The Go-Betweens (1977–89, and resuming 2000–06) is complemented by several solo releases and side-project collaborations with other performers. McLennan received a number of accolades recognising his achievements and contributions as songwriter and lyricist, including the naming of his 1983 composition "Cattle and Cane" by the Australasian Performing Right Association (APRA) as one of the 30 greatest Australian songs of all time. McLennan died suddenly of a heart attack at the age of 48. (Wikipedia)

Der letzte Nachtflug

Die letzte AB Sendung auf WDR 1 "Eins live"

Vor der Sendung am 24.9. 95 wurde AB der Zutritt zum WDR Gebäude durch den Hausmeister verboten!!

Siehe die Zeitungsartikel:

Bye, bye, Bangs

Abnehmende Radioaktivität

⁸⁵⁵ Und diesmal werden wir richtig abheben

⁸⁵⁶ Das Leben ist vor allem ein Wahnsinnsformat

⁸⁵⁷ "Chopin The greatest Hits" 7:46? CD

⁸⁵⁸ Willkommen zurück und wir heben diesmal direkt von der Strasse ab.

⁸⁵⁹ Das Gefühl ist nach wie vor da und stärker als je zuvor

⁸⁶⁰ Souveränität ist nämlich dabei gefragt

⁸⁶¹ Wo man überall hingehen kann, ohne Worte benutzen zu müssen: John Fahey und "The Great San Bernardino Birthday Party". Heute am 18. September vor 25 Jahren ist Jimi Hendrix gestorben. Er wird nach wie vor sehr gemisst, aber seine Musik, seine Musik lebt weiter, multipliziert sich sogar. Und das war's dann fast - für heute auf jeden Fall - vielen, vielen Dank für's Zuhören und sagen wir bis nächste Woche. Mach's gut und äh.. Tschüss.

⁸⁶² 27.5.05 Vermutlich von der "The Greatest Hits", weil da Ida Czernecka mit einer Polonaise (7:46!) drauf ist und das Preludes No7. Und die CD ist von 1993

⁹¹⁰ viel Lärm um gar nichts

⁹¹¹ Robert Johnson - von einer Geliebten vergiftet

⁹¹² Im August 1938 starb Johnson im Alter von 27 Jahren an den Spätfolgen einer Syphilis connata. Die vielfach kolportierte und auf Sonny Boy Williamson II. zurückgehende Geschichte, er sei von einem eifersüchtigen Ehemann vergiftet worden, wurde 1998 anhand der Todesurkunde widerlegt. Begraben wurde Robert Johnson wahrscheinlich auf einem kleinen Friedhof in dem Ort Three Forks; die genaue Grabstätte ist jedoch unbekannt. In Morgan City (Mississippi) findet sich ein Gedenkstein an Robert Johnson mit der folgenden Aufschrift: „Robert Johnson. ‚King of the Delta Blues Singers.‘ His Music struck a Chord that continues to resonate. His Blues adressed Generations he would never know and made Poetry of his Visions and Fears.“

⁹¹³ Cross Road Blues ist ein Delta Blues-Song von Robert Johnson.

Es stammt aus dem Jahr 1936 "aufgenommen in San Antonio in Texas". Das Lied wurde im selben Jahr von Vocalion Records veröffentlicht. Nachdem die Aufnahme lange

Zeit out of print war, erschien das Stück erst 1990 auf dem Album The Complete Recordings erneut. Aufgrund seiner historischen Bedeutung wurde der Cross Road Blues 1998 in die Blues Hall of Fame aufgenommen. In der Version von Robert Johnson wird der Gesang nur von der Gitarre begleitet.

Der Text erzählt die Geschichte eines Bluesmusikers, der an einer bestimmten Kreuzung im Mississippi-Delta seine Seele an den Teufel verkauft, um von ihm den Blues zu lernen. Der Legende nach soll Robert Johnson, genau wie sein im Lied besungener Freund Willie Brown, diesen Handel mit dem Teufel gemacht haben. Dieses Thema und die Geschichte dieses Songs wurde 1986 in dem Spielfilm Crossroads – Pakt mit dem Teufel verwendet. Das Thema "Seelenverkauf" wurde von Johnson auch in den "37er-Session"-Songs "Hellhounds On My Trail" und "Me & The Devil Blues" verarbeitet.

⁹³⁵ Die Platte entstand so: Willard Grant Conspiracy - diese sich personell ständig im Fluss befindliche Truppe rund um Sänger und Songwriter Robert Fisher - sollten in Slovenien ein Festival spielen. Kaum in Ljubljana angekommen, besuchte man den dort ansässigen Chris Eckman, seines Zeichens Frontmann der Walkabouts. Dieser wiederum hatte Lust auf eine Session und so ging man eben ins Studio. Das Ergebnis liegt jetzt vor. Zu hören sind viele Geigen, viele Mollakkorde und zauberhafter, elfengleicher Backgesang unter anderem beigetragen von Jess Klein (was für eine Stimme!) und Kristin Hersh (Throwing Muses). Fishers Gesang bewegt sich auf der Ebene von Nick Cave und Consorten. Seine Kompositionen dagegen sind deutlich feiner gesponnen als die der Konkurrenz. Das schützt ihn nicht vor mancher Belanglosigkeit („Another man is gone“), erzeugt aber auch wahre Wunder an melancholischen Songs. Vor allem das herausragende „The trials of Harrison Hayes“ muss man erwähnen und empfehlen, aber auch das bereits erschienene „Twistation“, bei dem Fisher wie Kurt Wagner singt. Unterm Strich finden sich auf „Regard the end“ zwar eine ganze Reihe lohnenswerter Stücke, der Rest ist aber etwas sehr beschaulich geraten. Beschaulich wie Ljublijanas Innenstadt. ⁹⁵⁷ Je mehr ich weiss, desto weniger verstehe ich ⁹⁵⁸ Released in 2004, "The Runaway Found" is almost even more haunting due to the events that transpired a year later in New Orleans. In the opening seconds of the song titled The Valleys of New Orleans, Andrews softly delivers, "Someday the walls will tremble with terrible flames here 'Til the mouth of some hurricane sweeps them away." As if it was written after Hurricane Katrina had occurred, The Valleys of New Orleans is just as compelling and beautiful as anything featured on this particular record. Relying entirely on Andrews' fervent vocals, this piano-laden ballad only furthers the inspired nature of the album.

27.03. 2006 "Loser. Wer verliert, gewinnt"⁹⁷¹ Ein Feature von Alan Bangs und Theo Roos „Man kann Vieles verlieren: ein Spiel, sein Leben, seinen Weg, seine Liebe. Man kann sich aber auch in Musik oder in Träumen verlieren. Verlieren befreit. Nur wer sich verlieren kann, verändert sich. Sich-in-Musik-zu-verlieren bedeutet für Patti Smith das Gefühl, sich im Weltraum zu bewegen und Gott näher zu sein. Elias Canetti beschreibt die Ambivalenz, sich ganz zu verlieren und sich zugleich ganz zu behalten. Das Ich ist immer schon verloren im neuronalen Netz, so der Hirnforscher Detlef B. Linke. Für Heiner Müller kommt Kultur ausschließlich von den Verlierern. Und für Friederike Mayröcker heißt schreiben, sich zu verlieren. Die musikalisch-philosophisch-literarischen Streifzüge der Autoren folgen der Fragestellung: Sind Loser wirklich Verlierer? Was gewinnt man, wenn man verliert?“
54:01

“Denn viele sind berufen, aber wenige sind auserwählt.” (Matthäus 20,16)

30.08. 2008 Nachtsession "Feuer!"

(5. Sa nach 5.Fr)

Feuer steht für Vieles. Es ist ein Symbol für die Leidenschaft, aber auch für die Hölle. Es ist unberechenbar und oft unkontrollierbar. Pessimisten behaupten schon lange, daß wir auf einem Pulverfaß sitzen. Die Warnsignale sind nicht zu überhören. Wir haben schon Alarmstufe 1.

Nachtsession mit dem Thema: „Fire / Feuer“. Eine Sendung rund um das Spiel mit dem Feuer! Die Menschheit hat und wird sich dabei immer die Finger verbrennen. Über alle Jahrzehnte hinweg! Dies wird untermalt mit Musik von Jerry Lee Lewis, Jimi Hendrix, über Randy Newman bis hin zu Franz Ferdinand.

„Vor einem Vierteljahrhundert präsentierte «Alan Bangs» unter anderem den «Rockpalast» im deutschen Fernsehen. Der britische Musikjournalist, der 1951 in London geboren wurde, ist vielen auch als Radio-DJ noch in bester Erinnerung. Seine treuesten Fans haben sogar seinen «Night Flight» bei BFBS Germany nicht vergessen, wo «Alan Bangs» Mitte der 70er Jahre anfang, Schallplatten aufzulegen.“

30.01. 2010 Nachtsession "The Limits Of Control" (Film by Jim Jarmusch)

Die Erkenntnis, daß nicht alles gerade nach Plan läuft, kommt oft zu spät. Wer die Vorzeichen entweder übersieht oder bewußt ignoriert, wird irgendwann böse überrascht. Aber manchmal bricht sogar alles zusammen; auch wenn man glaubte, darauf gut vorbereitet zu sein.

Nachtsession mit dem Thema: „The Limits Of Control - Songs über Mißgeschicke“. Ein Unglück kann mit Ansage kommen oder völlig spontan über den Menschen hereinbrechen. In diesen zwei Stunden geht es um Musik, die Schiefgegangenes beschreibt oder verarbeitet.

4. 2010-2013: Night Flight auf DRadioWissen und Nachtsession (bis 1.12.2012)

Die neue Serie der Night Flight/nightflight-Sendungen begann mit einer Redaktionskonferenz von DRadioWissen, dem 3. Programm des Deutschlandfunks, dass nur digital und über das Internet verbreitet wird. Dort wurde Alan Bangs mit seinem Sendungskonzept und Musikbeispielen vorgestellt.

Die erste Sendung startete am 4.4.2010, dem Ostermontag und wurde wöchentlich bis zum 15. Dezember 2013 ausgestrahlt. Einige Sendungen wurden in Abwesenheitszeiten von Alan Bangs wiederholt. Am 16. Juni 2013 wurde die bereits aufgenommene Sendung von DRadioWissen nicht gesendet, weil Alan darin auf die ihm mitgeteilte Einstellung seiner Sendung reagiert hatte (Am 10. Juni war übrigens gerade sein Geburtstag!). Die in der Folge aufflammende Diskussion zur Rettung seiner Sendung hielt bis über den letzten Sendetermin hinaus an und kann auf anderen nightflights.de-Seiten nachvollzogen werden. Die Aktionen blieben allerdings alle erfolglos.

1057 "Drown in the now... und hab' keine Angst..."

1058 Eine Reise von Tijuana nach Chicago

1059 auf dem Weg nach Ohio und zurück nach Louisiana... OK - Take us out of here

1060 Metaphorisch gesehen macht Ramblin' Jack Elliott genau das Gleiche. Mittlerweile 79 Jahre alt, denkt er jetzt - verständlicherweise- über metaphysische Fragen nach, die niemand so richtig beantworten kann. Fragen, die vermutlich rätselhaft, unbegreiflich und für immer ausser Reichweite bleiben werden.

1061 Mach einfach das Beste draus - oder wie Warren Zevon es einmal ausdrückte: "Enjoy every sandwich..."

1062 Und die Antwort darauf - ganz einfach: "Let the mystery be"

1063 "Sag nicht immer nein zu mir"

1064 Eluvium-Sänger: Matthew Robert Cooper

1065 "Take up your scythe / This world wasn't meant for us both..." Hier dürfte Sensemann gemeint sein, und der Sänger will ihm sagen, dass er -also der Sensemann- schnell wieder verschwinden sollte, da er unter den Lebenden nix verloren hat.

1066 Angst ist keine Ortschaft, die man einfach vermeiden kann, indem man lange Umwege fährt, wer die andere Seite schnell erreichen will, ist meistens gut beraten, geradeaus durchzufahren. Es gibt aber Gegenden, die fast komplett angstfrei sind, um sie zu finden muss man allerdings dort suchen, wo die Wege oft nur schwer zugänglich sind - nämlich in sich selbst.

Man beginnt an beiden Ufern gleichzeitig und, wenn alles richtig berechnet wurde, treffen sich die zwei Seiten genau in der Mitte. Anders ausgedrückt: man baut von außen nach innen. Und diese Sendung wurde auf eine ähnliche Art und Weise zusammengestellt. Ich begann sozusagen an beiden Ufern (also am Anfang und am Ende) mit zwei Pop Songs - wenn auch zwei völlig unbekanntem Pop Songs! Danach folgte "Be Here Now" von Ray LaMontagne, und dieses Lied brachte mich auf die Idee, zwei Songs von Nick Drake zu spielen und auch drei Fassungen von "Within You Without You" durch die Sendung zu verteilen. Die Symmetrie war auch wichtig – sonst wäre alles vermutlich aus dem Gleichgewicht gekommen, und die Brücke wäre eingestürzt bevor sie überhaupt fertig gewesen wäre..... Wir sind nun sozusagen am anderen Ufer angekommen und der Brückenpfeiler, der dort fest verankert ist, heißt "Heaven" und stammt von Brett Dennen aus Oakdale in Kalifornien."

¹⁰⁹⁶ The Nortec Collective is composed of four artists: Fussible (Pepe Mogt), Bostich (Ramon Amezcua), Clorofila (Jorge Verdín) and Hiperboreal (Pedro Gabriel Beas). These producers create and perform a style of music called Nortec - a fusion of norteño ("from the North") and techno, documenting the collision between the style and culture of electronica and traditional Mexican music. Herzlichen Dank DradioLeute, für die PLs! Nie zu vergessen Alan Bangs für die Flights. Kommentar sollte auch sagen: Treue Hörer wissen Eure Arbeit zu schätzen. Und es gab Passagiere, die die PLs vermissten. @Minotaurus: Ja, der Sommer war sehr heiß. In Zukunft möchte ich meine Rundfunkgebühren nur noch bezahlen, wenn's Mt kühl genug ist. Wenn die Leistung nicht in den Gigawattbereich steigt. Und, wen meinst Du mit "Konsumenten"? Zählst Du Dich dazu? Verfasst am 28.07.2010 07:58 Uhr von Holmes

· ·5. fehlende playlists

Leute, es ist Sommerzeit, es war sehr heiß. Wer hat da Bock, komplizierte Angaben zu Musiktiteln mundgerecht für den Konsumenten aufzubereiten? Immerhin gibt's schon eine ganze Menge playlists früherer Sendungen und es gibt auch Leute, die das mit der Zeit alles dokumentieren, z.B. bei nightflights.de Aber das ist doch kein Leistungswettbewerb... Verfasst am 25.07.2010 23:02 Uhr von minotaurus

· ·4. Zeitdilation

@ Helmut und alle Wartenden: Man soll die Hoffnung ja nicht aufgeben, aber auch die Zeit, wenn die Materie zerfallen und die Schwarzen Löcher verdampft sind, ist noch "nach der Sendung". Falls die Zeit nicht zyklisch ist. Dann wäre "nach der Sendung" auch "vor der Sendung". Vielleicht sogar während der Sendung. Ob wir da lieber auf Godot warten sollten? Vielen Dank für Dein Engagement Verfasst am 24.07.2010 01:49 Uhr von Holmes

"Im Nightflight spielt Bangs Klassiker neu interpretiert. Im Nightflight reist Bangs einmal durch die moderne Musikgeschichte. Dazu hat er sich das französische Konzept der Bricolage zum Vorbild genommen: Musikalische Stilrichtungen werden mit den Klängen verknüpft, die unterschiedliche Gegenstände und Instrumente erzeugen, so entsteht ein völlig neuer Sound." Korrektur by HS

¹¹³¹ Frou Frou was a British electronic music duo composed of Imogen Heap and Guy Sigsworth. They released their only album, Details, in 2002. Both of them write, produce and play instruments on the tracks, while Heap also provides the vocals. Frou Frou disbanded (amicably) in 2003 to go their separate ways musically but have recently stated the possibility of new Frou Frou collaborations. (Wikipedia)

¹¹³² Imogen Heap (born 9 December 1977 in the London Borough of Havering) is a Grammy Award-winning British singer and songwriter from Romford, Havering. She is known for her work as part of the musical duo Frou Frou and her solo albums, which she writes, produces, and mixes. In 2006, Heap was nominated for two Grammy Awards. She has produced three solo albums, the latest of which is 2009's Ellipse, which was an immediate North American chart success and earned Heap two Grammy nominations, winning Best Engineered Album, Non-Classical. Released in 1999 by Restless

And you open the door and you step inside We're inside our hearts Now imagine your pain as a white ball of healing light That's right, your pain The pain itself is a white ball of healing lightI don't think so This is your life, good to the last drop Doesn't get any better than this This is your life and it's ending one minute at a time This isn't a seminar, this isn't a weekend retreat Where you are now you can't even imagine what the bottom will be like Only after disaster can we be resurrectedIt's only after you've lost everything that you're free to do anything Nothing is static, everything is appalling, everything is falling apart This is your life, this is your life, this is your life, this is your life Doesn't get any better than thisThis is your life, this is your life, this is your life, this is your life And it's ending one-minute at a timeYou are not a beautiful and unique snowflakeYou are the same decaying organic matter as everything elseWe are all part of the same compost heapWe are the all singing, all dancing, crap of the worldYou are not your bank account You are not the clothes you wear You are not the contents of your walletYou are not your bowel cancer You are not your grande latte You are not the car you driveYou are not your fucking khaki'sYou have to give up, you have to give up You have to realize that someday you will dieUntil you know that, you are uselessI say let me never be completel say may I never be contentI say deliver me from Swedish furnitureI say deliver me from clever artsI say deliver me from clear skin and perfect teethI say you have to give upI say evolve, and let the chips fall where they may This is your life, this is your life, this is your life, this is your life Doesn't get any better than thisThis is your life, this is your life, this is your life, this is your life And it's ending one-minute at a time You have to give up, you have to give up I want you to hit me as hard as you can I want you to hit me as hard as you can Welcome to Fight Club this is your first night, you have to fight

"Immer sonntags ab 23:05 Uhr ist Alan-Bangs-Time. Er ist längst Kult und bei DRadio Wissen hat er seine eigene Sendung: Musikjournalist und Moderator Alan Bangs. Jeden Sonntag von 23 bis 24 Uhr nimmt Alan Bangs uns mit auf seinen "Nightflight" - die Sendung, mit der er 1975 seine Karriere bei BFBS Germany begann, bevor er den Rockpalast und zahlreiche Radiosendungen moderierte. Am Samstag, dem 23.10. ab 23:05 Uhr (sic!), lässt Alan Bangs die Hörer aufhorchen bei Klängen von zeitloser Musik aus einer ganz anderen Zeit. Wer einschaltet, kann auch den Klängen von Jon Hopkins lauschen und die unglaubliche Euphorie erleben, die erzeugt wird, wenn man sich exzessiv im Kreis dreht. Steigen Sie ein und fliegen Sie mit: Altes, Neues, Bekanntes und Selten-Gehörtes mischt Bangs wie kein Zweiter. Schön, dass er wieder abhebt!"

1200 Siehe EselZuechter Kommentar Nr.3 bei DRW; AB sagt es aber auch richtig an.

1201 ..., dass wir ahnungslos ohne Schlüssel hinter verschlossenen Türen sitzen.

1202 Vieles ist nicht mehr, was es einmal war - meine Stimme zum Beispiel - aber vieles ist auch interessanter geworden.

1203 unvermeidlich in Vergessenheit geraten

1204 Der erste Traum ist nur der Anfang

1205 Solche Nebelbänke haben mich immer fasziniert. der Moment, wo alles wieder zu sich findet.

1206 Johnny Cash hat es immer gewußt. der Tag der Abrechnung kommt bestimmt

1207 Wozu die ganze Anstrengung?

¹²⁰⁸ "Gravastar" / "Celebrity Science" is a single, in support of Hybrid's then upcoming second album Morning Sci-Fi. "Gravastar" / "Celebrity Science" was given a limited release, and is therefore rare. "Celebrity Science" is not included in Morning Sci-Fi or any Hybrid album for that matter, but was featured (along with "Gravastar") in an edited form as part of the in-game soundtrack to the PC game F1 Challenge '99-'02, which was released in 2003.[1] "Gravastar", on this single, is longer than on Morning Sci-Fi. The single was later released on iTunes on June 26, 2008.

30.04. 2011 Nachtsession „The Meaning of the Song - Inhalte und Deutungen“

«The Meaning of the Song – Inhalte und Deutungen» – Nicht immer sagt man das, was man denkt. Und nicht immer meint man das, was man sagt. Das ist auch in der Musik so, die gerne mit Doppeldeutigkeiten und Verschleierungen der Wahrheit spielt. «Alan Bangs» nimmt sich dieser Sache an und kreiert einen zweistündigen Mix zwischen akustischem Folksong und elektronischer Hymne mit Musik von «John Mellencamp», «Adele», «Rumer», «The Moody Blues» uva.

30.07. 2011 Nachtsession „Triptychon“

«Triptychon» – Dreiteilige Bildtafel. Ein bisschen Pathos muss sein: In der Kirche wird seit Jahrhunderten vor dreiteiligen Bildtafeln gebetet. Wie sehr das «Triptychon» die zeitgenössische Kunst bzw. Musik beeinflusst, zeigt uns «Alan Bangs» in der heutigen «Nachtsession». Die besagten 3 Teile bestehen aus: 1. Wüstensounds, 2. Zeitgenössische Musik, 3. Die guten alten Hippies – «Alan Bangs» beginnt diese «Nachtsession» mit Klängen aus dem arabischen Kulturraum von unter anderem: «Speed Caravan» und «Maghrebika With Bill Laswell», «Thierry «Titi» Robin» fließt dann nahtlos in die Zeitgenössische Musik des 21. Jahrhunderts von unter anderem «Bon Iver», «Emily Barker & The Red Clay Halo» oder «Birdy». Mit Musikern wie «Brian Eno», «Paul Simon», die ihre Hochzeit in den 70er und 80er Jahren hatten bzw. «Charlie Feathers», der seine Zeit in den 50er Jahren hatte, wird dann das «Triptychon» vollendet.

01.10. 2011 Nachtsession „A Journey into Sound“

«A Journey into Sound» – Musik aus fünf Jahrzehnten – «Alan Bangs» schlägt wieder große musikalische Bögen, startet mit «Ian Hunter», sowie mit dem Blues der «Robins» – eine schwarze Doo-Wop-Band – aus dem Jahr 1954 (die später als «The Coasters» weltberühmt wurden), erinnert an die fast vergessenen Platte «1. Outside» aus dem Jahr 1995 von «David Bowie», kommt auf das aktuelle Album «Le Noise» von «Neil Young» – Produzent: «Daniel Lanois» – ebenso zu sprechen wie auf den frühen «Roy Orbison» mit: «Trying to Get to You» aus dem Jahr 1956. Dazu gibt es aber auch noch Brandneues von «Bon Iver», «The Feelies» aus dem Album: «Here Before». Wie immer kommen auch hier diverse musikalische Welten und Epochen organisch zusammen.

31.12. 2011 Nachtsession „Geisterstunden - Über Dinge, die es geben könnte“

«Geisterstunden» – Über Dinge, die es geben könnte – Geister spuken durch die Welt des Pop: Geister von ehemaligen Innovatoren wie Blues-Legende «Robert Johnson», besungene Geister von «Japan» oder «Nick Cave», Geister à la «Major Tom», die als ehemalige Astronauten durchs All schwirren und letztlich auch der Geist von Weihnachten, der unabhängig von Konsumgedanken existiert. Ist es real oder nur eingebildet, fragt der musikalische Geistersucher «Alan Bangs».

"Django hat ne Chipkarte

Die modern Popmusik wird von zwei sehr unterschiedlichen Stilrichtungen geprägt: Zum einen von sehr traditionell-orientierten Singer/Songwritern , die in dieser Sendung vertreten sind durch Natasha Atlas, Katheleen Edwards, Emmylou Harris und Birdy, zum anderen durch Projekte, die sich die modernsten technischen Errungenschaften zunutze machen, hier repräsentiert durch M83, Django Django, Sleigh Bells, Weeknd oder Zola Jesus. Dass man diese Antagonismen trotzdem auf eine Reihe bekommen kann, beweist Alan Bangs in seinem zeitlosen Mix, wie immer gewürzt mit Küchenphilosophie des Autors." (BR2)

01.09. 2012 Nachtsession „Geister aus dem Äther“

"2012-09-01 Nachtsession BR2 -- PL"

"Blue Moon Radio

Die zweite Vollmondnacht im Monat August nutzt Alan Bangs zu einem atmosphärischen Mix von alter und neuer Musik, von Pop à la "A Whisper in the Noise" und den Engineers über indische Sitarmusik von Anoushka Shankar bis zu Klassikern von Jimi Hendrix und den Doors. Dazu gibt es wie immer Überlegungen über Radiowellen, menschliche Beziehungen und den diesmal: Den Einfluss des Mondes auf die Seele." (BR2)

“All good things got to come to an end”

Playlist 01.12.2012 Alan Bangs

"Nachdem er zwölf Jahre immer wieder in der Nachtsession zu hören war, kommt jetzt die letzte Nachtsession mit Alan Bangs. Er feiert eine Stunde lang eine kleine Abschiedsparty und alle sind dabei: Von Jackson Browne - von dem auch der Titel dieser Sendung stammt - bis ACDC. Von Underworld bis zu den Beatles, von Coldplay bis Prince und von den Black Keys bis Bill Fay." (BR2)

RHAPSODY ON A WINDY NIGHT

by: T.S. Eliot (1888-1965) (siehe Night Flight 27.09. 1981)

TWELVE o'clock.

Along the reaches of the street

Held in a lunar synthesis

Whispering lunar incantations

Dissolve the floors of memory

And all its clear relations

Its divisions and precisions

Every street lamp that I pass

Beats like a fatalistic drum

And through the spaces of the dark

Midnight shakes the memory

As a madman shakes a dead geranium.

Half-past one

The street lamp sputtered

The street lamp muttered

The street lamp said "Regard that woman

Who hesitates towards you in the light of the door

Which opens on her like a grin.

You see the border of her dress

Is torn and stained with sand

And you see the corner of her eye

Twists like a crooked pin."

The memory throws up high and dry

A crowd of twisted things;

A twisted branch upon the beach

Eaten smooth and polished

As if the world gave up

The secret of its skeleton

Stiff and white.

A broken spring in a factory yard

Rust that clings to the form that the strength has left

Hard and curled and ready to snap.

Half-past two

The street lamp said

"Remark the cat which flattens itself in the gutter

Slips out its tongue

And devours a morsel of rancid butter."

So the hand of a child automatic

Slipped out and pocketed a toy that was running along the quay.

I could see nothing behind that child's eye.

I have seen eyes in the street

Trying to peer through lighted shutters

And a crab one afternoon in a pool

An old crab with barnacles on his back

Gripped the end of a stick which I held him.

Half-past three

The lamp sputtered

The lamp muttered in the dark.

The lamp hummed:

"Regard the moon

La lune ne garde aucune rancune

She winks a feeble eye

She smiles into corners.

She smooths the hair of the grass.
The moon has lost her memory.
A washed-out smallpox cracks her face
Her hand twists a paper rose
That smells of dust and old Cologne
She is alone
With all the old nocturnal smells
That cross and cross across her brain."
The reminiscence comes
Of sunless dry geraniums
And dust in crevices
Smells of chestnuts in the streets
And female smells in shuttered rooms
And cigarettes in corridors
And cocktail smells in bars."
The lamp said
"Four o'clock
Here is the number on the door.
Memory!
You have the key
The little lamp spreads a ring on the stair
Mount.
The bed is open; the tooth-brush hangs on the wall
Put your shoes at the door sleep prepare for life."
The last twist of the knife.
